

Who is this for?

This qualification is for anyone who is currently working, or is looking to start work in the construction industry. It is perfect for anyone wanting to apply for the Construction Skills Certificate Scheme (CSCS) Labourer Card, necessary for work on a construction site in the UK.

Key points

- Regulated qualification
- Written to meet current Health and Safety Legislation
- Recognised by the CSCS scheme
- Guided learning hours based on level of experience
- Certificate included
- Assessed by MCQs

Course content

This qualification has been developed to shared units with other regulated awarding organisations. Topics include:

- Key legal requirements for health and safety
- Accident types in construction
- Reporting accidents and ill health
- Emergencies and first aid
- Risk assessments and method statements
- Fire
- Electricity
- Slips, trips and falls (from height)
- Moving vehicles and mobile plant
- Work equipment
- Manual handling
- Noise and Vibration
- Hazardous substances
- Alcohol and drugs
- Health and safety signage
- Personal protective equipment
- Welfare facilities